*During the period December 2011 and February 2014 2,380 people died after their claim for employment and support allowance (ESA) ended because a work capability assessment (WCA) found they were found fit for work. Another 7,200 claimants had died after being awarded ESA and being placed in the separate work-related activity group. When Theresa May tells you Tories respect the armed forces, remember the veterans who died after benefits sanctions
 Marine veteran Gordon Lang died from cancer after the state stripped his benefits and told him to find a job despite being terminally ill. Army veteran David Clapson died unable to afford food or electricity after having his Jobseeker's Allowance stopped.

Your country is at risk
 The Conservatives operating system is chronically unstable and corrupted.
 To fix this problem, install Labour on June 8th.
